

ROSEMARY WINBUSH is an author, speaker, consultant, blogger, trainer, coach, and producer focusing on women, children, families, and ministry/business leadership teams. She is gifted in helping others reach their maximum potential through self-evaluation, developing directional tracks, and producing results that yield success. Rosemary has worked with children and families for more than 30 years. She has over 30 years of ministry leadership, 19 years of ministerial staffing experience, along with corporate and community serving experience.

She has authored spiritually based help books and marriage tools, and produced inspirational healing and affirmation albums. Rosemary has leveraged her expertise to assist families develop better home environments to promote family maturity, growth, and healthy living.

Rosemary is the founding host of the BEST Me project for students and The7Movement bible study project for women. She is a recipient of the R. David and I. Lorraine Thomas Child Advocate of the Year award. Rosemary has presented at special events, private business groups, workshops, conferences and worship services.

Rosemary and her husband, Wyman, are owners of Kairos International and WRW International, LLC, two companies committed to educating, empowering, and inspiring individuals and businesses to reach their maximum and divine potential. Rosemary is also a Licensed Florida Real Estate Agent and Notary Public.